

UUA Florida District Racial Justice Council presents...

Building the World We Dream About

Will your congregation be a leader in taking the Florida District to the tipping point in racial justice ministry?

This workshop is designed for Unitarian Universalist congregations to examine cultural competencies and gain tools and resources for effectively engaging in racial justice ministry. This hands-on event will leave your congregation equipped to take the next step in your racial justice ministry with the support of other congregations also committed to leading the way in “building the world we dream about.”

Saturday, March 13, 2010
10:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Including an optional “Meet & Greet” with the
UUA Florida District Racial Justice Council
Friday, March 12 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Boca Raton
2601 St. Andrews Blvd., Boca Raton, 33434

$50 for up to 3 people per congregation + $10 for each additional person
Please register no later than March 1st
Travel Equalization may be available on request for those traveling over 250 miles.

For additional information please contact:
Jan Taddeo, 954.450.9658, rjdtaddeo@earthlink.net
Florida District of the UUA: www.floridadistrict.org

UUA Florida District Racial Justice Council
"Building the World We Dream About"
Saturday, March 13, 2010
10:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Facilitator: Dr. Mark Hicks, UUA JUUST Change Consultant and Angus MacLean Professor of Religious Education at Meadville Lombard Theological School.

Objectives:

- Assess cultural competencies and congregational readiness in racial justice ministry
- Learn and practice skills in creating the racially just world we dream about
- Equip congregations with tools and next steps for effective racial justice ministry
- Covenant with other congregations committed to racial justice ministry

Send a Team! Congregations are asked to send at least three people to this workshop, including a minister* and a board member, in order to most effectively bring insights and action items back to the congregation. (*If no minister currently serves your congregation, send more lay leaders!)

Location: UU Fellowship of Boca Raton, 2601 St. Andrews Blvd., Boca Raton 33434

Cost: $50 per congregation covers workshop materials and lunch for up to 3 people ($10 for each additional participant). All participants must register in advance, no later than March 1st.

Travel Equalization: Travel equalization may be available upon request for those traveling over 250 miles.

Friday Meet & Greet: The Racial Justice Council is meeting on Friday, March 12, at UUFBR from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. Participants arriving on Friday are invited to "meet and greet" with the committee.

Friday Night Accommodations: A list of nearby hotels is available upon request. Home hospitality may be available. Contact Jan Taddeo for information.

For additional information, please contact Jan Taddeo: rjdtaddeo@earthlink.net

Register by March 1st.

----- DETACH AND MAIL WITH CHECK or REGISTER ON-LINE: www.floridadistrict.org -----

Congregation: _____

Participant	E-Mail	Phone	Special Needs*
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

*Special Needs may include dietary concerns, accessibility, allergies, etc. Please specify on back of form if more space is needed, or contact Jan Taddeo directly to discuss needs.

Please enclose this form and your check made out to Florida District UUA and mail to Florida District UUA, Attn: Racial Justice Workshop, 1901 E. Robinson St., Suite 18, Orlando, FL 32803. OR Register on-line at www.floridadistrict.org