Our Guest Speaker ~ Gini Courter

A native of Michigan, Courter was raised a Methodist. At a friend's suggestion, she visited a Unitarian Universalist church and immediately felt a connection. She joined the Unitarian Universalist Church of Flint in 1985 where she served on the board and building committee.

Courter volunteered to serve on the Heartland District board and was elected finance chair. She actively promoted Unitarian Universalist growth in her area and conducted several "Beyond Categorical Thinking" workshops, which help congregations reflect on diversity and their ministerial needs.

In 1995, she was elected to the UUA Board of Trustees representing the Heartland District. During her eight years on the board, she served on the UUA Finance Committee, chairing the group for three years, and was liaison to the Electronic Communications Committee, the Annual Program Fund Task Force, and the General Assembly Technology Task Force. In 2003 she became secretary of the GA Planning Committee.

Courter brings numerous strengths to the job of moderator, including a deep passion for Unitarian Universalist polity, solid networking skills, risk tolerance, and a preference for broadly shared leadership. "I have also been told that I run a good meeting," she adds. She is committed to growing Unitarian Universalism.

Courter is an information technology consultant and a nationally recognized speaker on office collaboration and productivity tools. A founder and partner in TRIAD Consulting. Courter is the author or co-author of 29 books on information technology.
