

Dear UU Friends,

Last year when Katrina hit New Orleans the First Unitarian Universalist Church of New Orleans (FUUNO) went under five feet of water. Everything in the church was ruined and its members were devastated. However, most of them have returned and have begun the hard work of rebuilding. They need the support of other UU congregations. The Unitarian Universalists of Clearwater have agreed to be a part of a group of partner churches supporting FUUNO.

Would your congregation be interested in working with us to help the people of New Orleans rebuild their church and build a strong UU presence in New Orleans?

On August 19th the choir director from FUUNO, Betsy McGovern, will be performing in a concert at the Unitarian Universalists of Clearwater. We would like to raise enough money to buy them a new piano and support their music ministry. The information about the concert is on the enclosed flier. We hope you will be able to buy a ticket and enjoy a wonderful evening of music and fellowship. However, if you can't come please buy a ticket anyway and donate the ticket to the local spouse abuse shelter for their clients. Please share this information with others in your congregation. Tickets are available by calling 727-531-7704. Let the good times roll once again in New Orleans.

Best regards,
UUC Social Justice Committee
