Clarence Darrow lived his life fighting against racism, conspiracy laws, civil liberties violations, inequality, the death penalty and social injustice. He never lost a death penalty case and saved 102 men from execution. With a national debate focused on the preservation of civil liberties amid concerns for the public safety from terrorism, this thoughtful and entertaining portrayal of a remarkable American is uniquely appropriate.

“Anderson’s performance was powerful and completely absorbing.”
... Trinity Journal, CA

“Anderson’s Darrow is in the same league as Hal Holbrook’s Mark Twain.”
... Eureka Times Standard, CA

“Captures both the homespun self-effacing humor and the fiery oratorical skills that made Darrow a legend among trial lawyers.”
... Shasta-Trinity Counties Bar Association

“An enthralling evening of theater....There was a sustained standing ovation at the conclusion. The performance simply could not have been better and the material is timely and inspirational.”
... The Reverend Julia Older, UU Fellowship, Redwood City, CA
