“That I Might Know Your Mind..... Identity and Diversity in Unitarian Universalism”

Facilitated by Gini Courter
Moderator of the UUA

If you have seen Gini Courter in action you know we are in for a treat! We will be led through conversations with each other and Gini about the nature of our Unitarian Universalist identity, the vast diversity we encourage, and the challenges we face to be true to ourselves and the call of our tradition.

Gini Courter will also be leading worship at the Orlando Church at 10:45 on Sunday, November 13, so why not think about making a weekend out of this wonderful opportunity to get to know our moderator and share with her our vision for our faith?

Members of the Orlando congregation are available to offer limited home hospitality at a suggested donation of $20.00 per night per person. If you are interested in taking them up on this offer, please contact Libby Jackson at libbybob@aol.com or give her a call at 407.855.4876. (Please do not send this request to the district office!)

Other housing is available about local motels. If you would like that information, please send Jessica Curren an e-mail at uuafldistoffice@aol.com or give her a call at 407.894.2119. She can send you a list.

The Members of the First Unitarian Church of Orlando invite us all to attend a musical gala concert, CELEBRATE: Open Your Hearts, Let the Waters Flow, on Saturday night at 7:00. First Unitarian Church of Orlando, Music Director, Jamie Sterrett has composed a collection of "soon to be published" music  that will be performed by various exciting artists representing diverse musical styles from New World, to Classical; from Choral to Improvisational Piano. The cost for this concert is $9.00 and can be included with this registration form or you can purchase tickets at the door. It is always good when we can listen to diverse music that reflects our faith's aspiration and inspiration. The concert will last 90 minutes and will be followed by a reception for all the musicians.

Registration for the conference is $15.00 per person and includes coffee, snacks, lunch and program. Please let us know how many of you will join other UUs for this exciting program.
