Creating the UU Church of the Future

A one and a half-day seminar led by Michael Durall

This fast-paced workshop is a semester-long course packed into one and a half days. It will encompass a wide range of issues, including: what membership in a UU church should mean; creating stronger leadership; building more successful stewardship initiatives; and why outreach and long-range planning go together hand in hand.

This course contains both conceptual issues along with practical ways that clergy and lay leaders can become more effective in their roles. This is not a "sit and listen" program. Come prepared to work!

Registrants will receive a copy of Durall's most recent book, The Almost Church: Redefining Unitarian Universalism for a New Era,

Michael Durall is principal of the Commonwealth Consulting Group in Boston, Massachusetts (www.vitalcongregations.com) and the author of three books about congregational life:

Creating Congregations of Generous People, published by the Alban Institute, now on the Alban Institute's list of all-time top ten bestseller list.

Beyond the Collection Plate, published by Abingdon Press.

The Almost Church: Redefining Unitarian Universalism for a New Era, published by Jenkin Lloyd Jones Press at All Souls Unitarian Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

REGISTRATION FEE: $450 for early registrations postmarked no later than 1/3/2006 ($500 for registrations postmarked 1/4/2006 or later), for as many people as your church would like to send. How about sending everyone!

The fee includes the program, a light breakfast, lunch, and the book.
