

Winterfest, 2006

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, Gainesville

It's the annual ritual we all yearn for,
no matter what spiritual journey we follow...

a festive gathering of gift-making to usher in the holiday season.
Be reminded of winter-time crafts you made as a child,
watch the youngster in your life create his or her own,
and leave this free event knowing you've given children the joy of having holiday gifts to present to loved ones which they've made themselves with love.

Craft booths in past years have included bird houses, Menorahs, Kwanzaa necklaces and indian ankle bracelets.

Share the Joy and Feel the Peace,
Winterfest, 2006

Saturday, December 2, 10am-2pm
