

The West Central Cluster of Unitarian Universalist Congregations
and the UU Church of St. Petersburg Present

Genocide Then/Genocide Now

A Workshop for Action with Charlie Clements
President of the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee

“Many critical human rights challenges confront the international community, but none is more urgent than the genocide in Darfur, where millions of people suffer in a preventable man-made crisis.”

UUSC President, Charlie Clements..

Morning Session: “Heroes of the Spirit: Genocide Then, Genocide Now”

Dr. Clements will present and discuss this new documentary of the heroic saga of UUSC founders the Rev. Waitstill and Martha Sharp, who went to Europe in 1939 to rescue Jews and political dissidents from the Nazis.

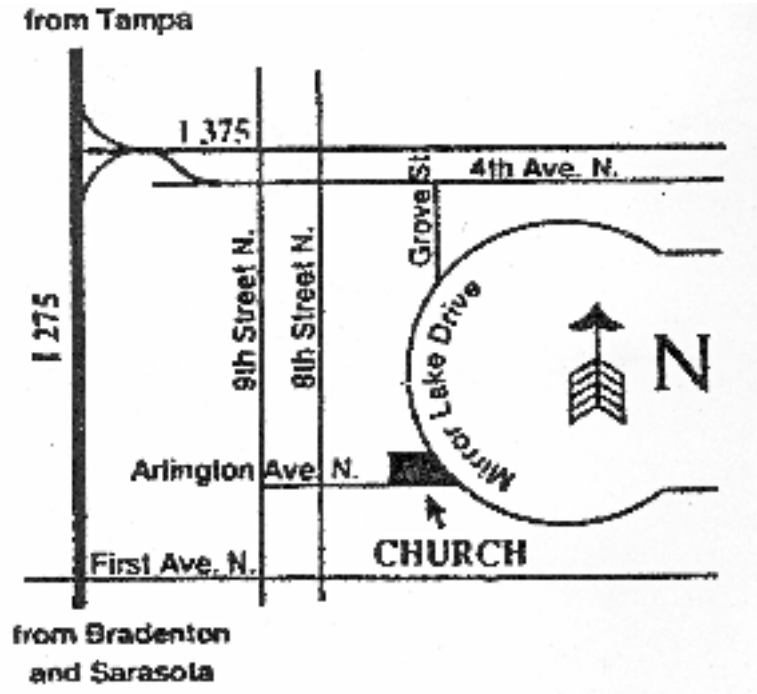

Genocide Now – A Description of Darfur now

Afternoon Session: “Drumbeat for Darfur: Acting to End Genocide Now”

The UUSC’s campaign to end the genocide in Darfur, Sudan. We will learn what we can do, and develop a plan for our congregations to do it!
