

How Shall We Grow?

A Workshop on Congregational Development

The Reverend Kenneth Gordon Hurto
UUA Florida's District Executive

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Venice

Saturday, March 31, 2007; 10 am — 2 pm
Cost: $10; lunch provided.

Workshop Topics:

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Numbers Matters — But Which?• Size Theory: Crossing the Thresholds<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Family Church• Pastoral Church• Program• Mid-Size• Why Resistance to Change Is Good!• Becoming a Mature Congregation: From Consumers to Producers• Growing Bigger by Growing Small• Hospitality: Removing the Barriers to Welcome• Understanding the Seekers Generation• The Future of Unitarian Universalism — We've Got One Generation! | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Special Case of Florida Congregations:<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Year-Rounders and/or versus Snowbirds• The Revolving Door Syndrome• The Place (or lack thereof) for Children• The Music Wars• Ministries to the Elderly |
|---|---|

Register by calling or emailing the Unitarian
Universalist Congregation of Venice

A Project Made Possible by the Generous Gifts of FLD Congregations

Florida District UUA

1971 Pinebrook Road, Venice FL 34292-1563
941-485-2105; uucov@verizon.net

March 2007 Packet

Page 15 of 28